Community Response Networks
Stopping Adult Abuse and Neglect ...Together.

Attention: CRN Coordinators

On September 29, 2024, we emailed CRN coordinators about the launch of a new online portal on www.bccrns.ca, which offers a variety of resources and information to assist coordinators in their role of addressing adult abuse, neglect and self-neglect in their local communities. In that email, coordinators received detailed instructions explaining how to access the portal with their username and password. In addition, that email also invited coordinators to attend online administrative orientations as an opportunity to connect with team members, review processes/procedures, find out what's new and ask questions.

If you have any questions, or if you did not receive the email on September 29, please email info@bccrns.ca for assistance.
